

Kind of organisms	Length	Brief Description of organism
1. soilmite (2 observed) Phylum-Arthropoda	Small, seemed like a "speck" with the naked eye, needed aid of dissecting microscope to see detailed body of organism	Found from the top of the Berlese Funnel; the most numerous arthropods living in soil; has two body parts, and 4 legs
2. springtail primitive	Small, seemed like a "speck" with the naked eye, needed aid of dissecting microscope to see detailed body of organism	Found from the top of the Berlese Funnel; typically live in moist environments
3. Springtail	Small, seemed like a "speck" with the naked eye, needed aid of dissecting microscope to see detailed body of organism	Found from the bottom of the Berlese Funnel; has six legs and two body parts, appears to have some type of "pincher" or rear antennae.